Grapes can be grown all throughout Oregon, but require a cool winter and a warm growing season, so they are often planted on slopes facing south.

The Concord is a grape variety that is often used to make grape juice.

On average, there are over 100 grapes in each bunch!

Nutrients Found in Grapes

~ Grapes are an excellent source of vitamin C, which supports one’s immune system.
~ Grapes are also an excellent source of vitamin K, which helps protect against heart disease.
~ Grapes contain copper, which is important for building strong tissue.

Grapes are one of the oldest cultivated fruits in the world. Hieroglyphics reveal that Egyptians were involved in grape production!

The word grape came from the Old French word grap, which means bunch or cluster. Grap is also the word used for the long hook that is sometimes used to harvest grapes.

Grapes can be grown all throughout Oregon, but require a cool winter and a warm growing season, so they are often planted on slopes facing south.

Different grape varieties (called cultivars) are suited to different climates and regions.

Grapes are one of the oldest cultivated fruits in the world. Hieroglyphics reveal that Egyptians were involved in grape production!